Varsity Cheerleaders; T. Hauter, S. Jacobson, S. Merwin, G. Kniep, L. Berta, R. Fuehring

HOURS OF PRACTICE

J-V Cheerleaders; C. Wenninger, T. Ristich, H. Zimmerman, M. Wieneke, G. Hedrick, L. Merrit

Drill Team Has Spirit!

The Morton "Potter Puffs", a selected group of sixteen girls, were seen this year at home basketball and football games performing routines at half-time. Sally Clark and Sue Driscoll, the co-captains, added a new variety of routines which they learned at summer camp at ISU. New uniforms were a highlight in this year's "new look." Sponsor for drill team was Miss Studinger.

Young was the only way to describe this year's varsity cheerleading squad with only one senior, Linda Berta, returning. This year they gave away the "Spirit Frog" to the class with the most spirit at the games. Varsity cheerleading squad included: Linda Berta, senior; Rhonda Fuehring, Gayle Kniep, Sharon Merwin, Juniors; Sue Jacobson and Teri Hauter, sophomores. Junior varsity was made up of sophomores; Heidi Zimmerman, Toni Ristich, Gail Hedrick, and freshmen; Mindy Weinike, Cheryl Wenninger, and Laurie Merrit. Both squads were sponsored by Mrs. Waibel.

The Harriers were short on experience this year but made up the difference in enthusiasm.

Returning lettermen were: Phil Zobrist, Steve Dawdy, and Steve Keller. Returning to the Cross Country scene this year was Rick Schafer. He added a new dimension in determination to the Potter squad. Pacing the squad this year was Coach Lee Smith.

Beat that time.

FOOTBALL '72

Returning lettermen gave the gridiron Potters a strong front this year. Many juniors, who saw considerable action, will return for the '73 campaign. The Potters learned new techniques under the supervision of Coach Muzzarelli, who fought his first year of battles with the Potter squad. Assisting Coach Muzzarelli were Coaches Murphy and McKechan. Sophomore coach was Coach Schupp, and coach of the freshmen team was Coach Kellar.

Soph. Football: Row 1–R. Capelle, C. Brown, M. Fischer, J. Pfeifer, T. Whitsitt, R. Beeler, R. King, K. Elward, B. Irmen, Row 2–T. Erickson, J. Fergusen, R. Driscoll, S. Zimmerman, R. Foster, J. Adair, C. Nevbaver, J. Zwanzig, R. Springer, J. Tuffentsamer, J. Shively.

VARSITY GRAPPLERS

The 1972-73 season was a good one for the Morton Wrestlers. With only one returning senior, the season started out slowly, but by the end of the season the grapplers were going under a full head of steam finished 2nd at District and sending 3 wrestlers to Sectional competition. Ralph Brown and Doug Getz finished with 26-1 records. The Varsity dual record was 5-13-1; the J-V dual record was 6-3; the Fresh-Soph. record was 4-1; and the Freshmen record 2-1-1. Coaches Coulter and McKechan were satisfied with the season.

"Lost In Space" shot everyone into orbit at the 1972 Christmas Dance. Addison Grace provided the music to add to the "spacey" atmosphere. Leading the way to the stars were Linda Berta, Queen; and Doug Smith, King. Their attendants were Gabi Mills and Rod Owens, Seniors; Sandy Cloyes and Kim Cowley, Juniors; Jan Liddle and Robert Fender, Sophomores; and Cindy Cali and Glenn Parrott, Freshmen.

LIBRARY HELPERS

Library helpers were required to have a general knowledge of the library and the ability to identify and find resources. Library helpers took attendance, checked out books for students, and monitered classes in the library. These librarians added much to the smooth operation of the library.

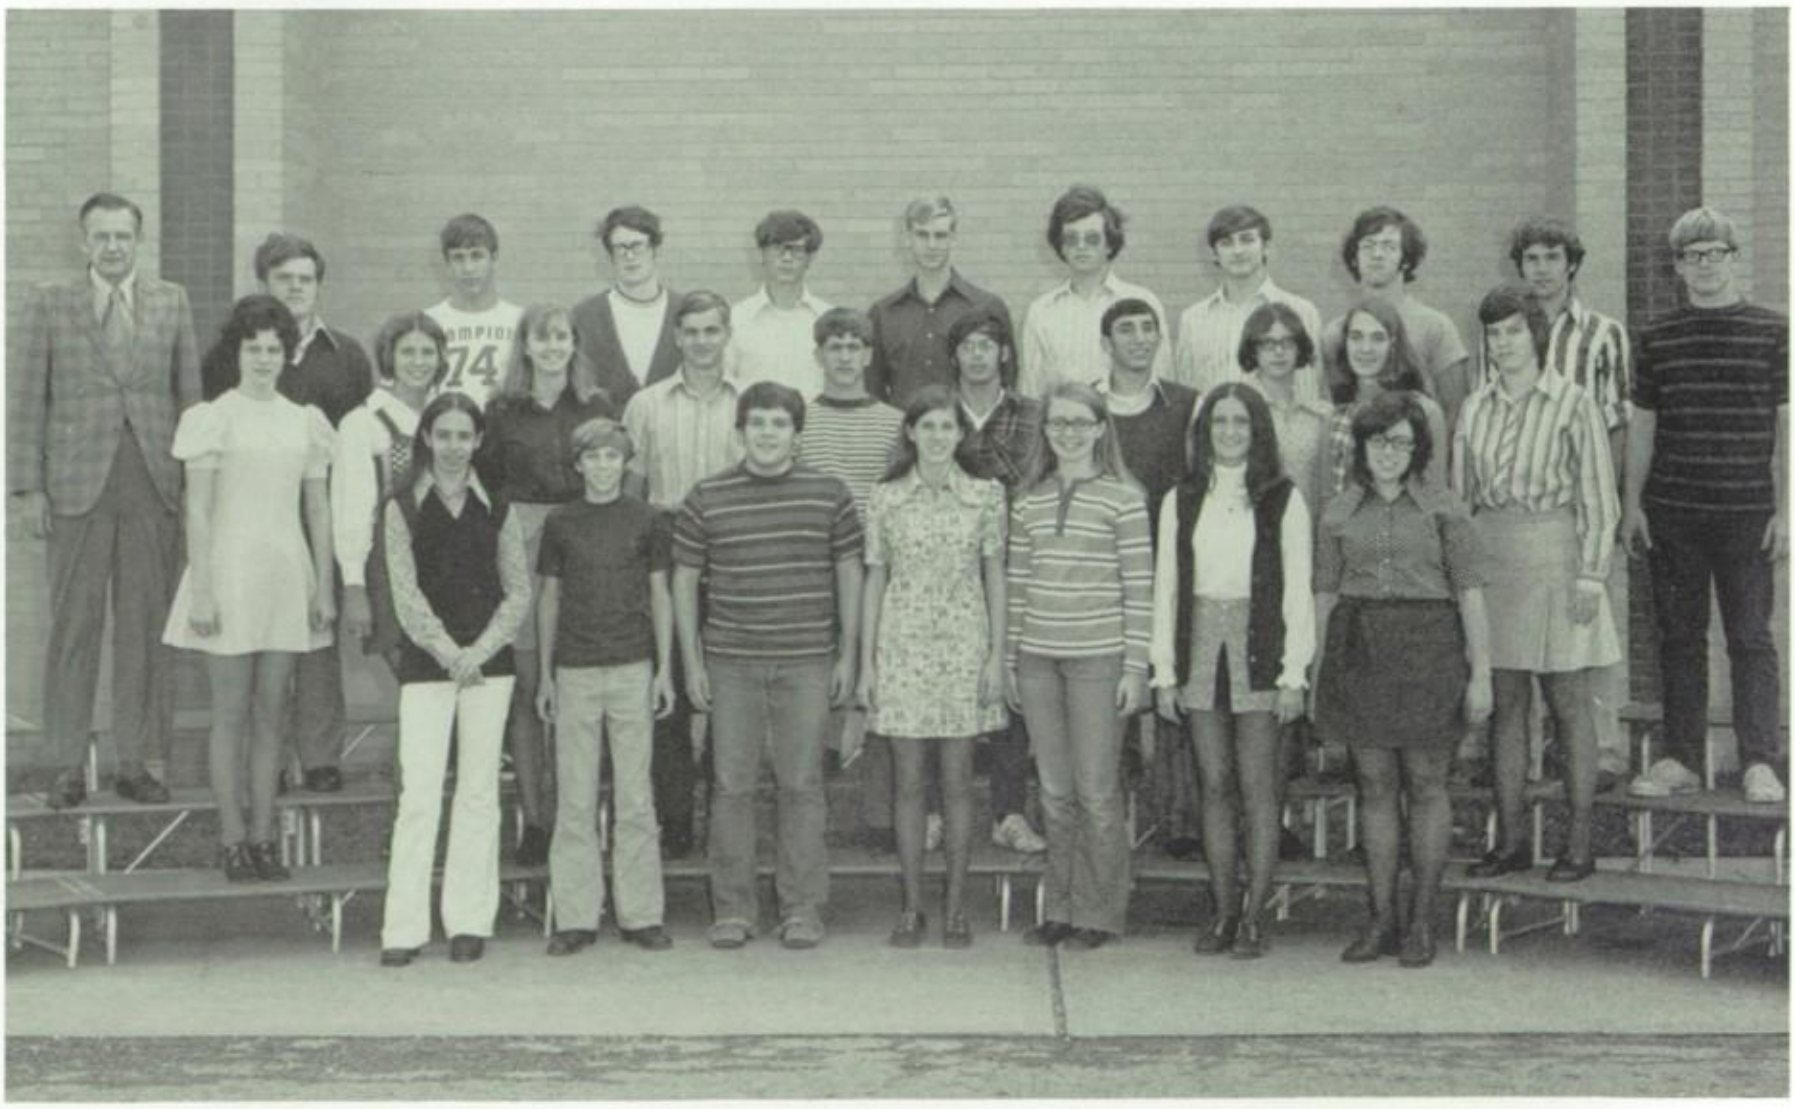
Members of Honor Society fly high.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This year National Honor Society consisted of 14 seniors and 11 juniors who had maintained an average of 93 or better in all of their grades. Sophomores who attained this average were inducted in May. Each member was chosen also on the basis of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Members perform special activities for the school such as serving as guides or tutoring. Mr. Rupprecht was the adviser.



National Honor Society: Row 1—L. Schwandner, B. Tate, J. Hinnen, P. Wuthrich, S. Eaton, B. Green, S. Delfs. Row 2—V. Litherland, S. Merwin, S. Giebelhausen, M. Sauder, D. Getz, B. Johansen, S. STUDENT COUNCIL

The student body placed itself in the capable control of 43 elected officers this year. The total membership of student council was composed of class officers, class representatives, members at large, foreign exchange students, and Student Council officers. The officers were: Marty McClintick, President; Jenny Turner, Vice-Pres; Barb Landis, Sec; Steve Ghelardini Treas. Advisors were Mr. Hootman and Mr. Bruell. Student Council was responsible for planning assemblies, dances and Student Council Week. Much time and effort were expended in the successful presentation of these activities.

DEBATE

The Debate team spent many Saturdays away from home during the 1972-73 season. Members traveled to DeKalb, East Peoria, the University of Illinois, and to the Heart of Illinois Conference where Steve Wright and Dave Bright won first place. Steve Wright was first in total speaker points, and Dave Bright tied for second. Mary Chismark was second in speaker points at East Peoria. The debate team was coached by Mrs. Adams. Their topic was, "Resolved, that all elementary and secondary public education should be financed exclusively by the federal government."

PEP CLUB

The main purpose of pep club this year was to promote spirit and enthusiasm among the students at MHS. The club backed the team by putting on pep assemblies and decorating the halls with signs. In addition, pep club sponsored sock hops after games and jointly promoted the chili supper with the cheerleaders. Mrs. Waibel, the faculty advisor, helped the officers and board to plan projects and promote new spirit ideas.

We're proud of our Farmers!

A TIME TO REAP

The goal of Future Farmers of America was to teach its members the value of vocational agriculture and develop in its members character, leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The members of FFA met once a month with Mr. Lindley, their advisor.

GAA

Girls Athletic Association, the largest club at MHS, provides its all-girl membership with the opportunity to participate in after school sports. Among those offered this year were: speedball, volleyball, basketball, badminton, tennis, bowling and softball. Extramural sports were optional on an achievement basis, and girls could act as referees for GAA games. To make money, GAA sold flowers for Homecoming and held the annual Tournabout Dance. Officers for GAA this year were: Debbie Roecker, Pres; Bev Koehler, Vice-Pres; Sally Miller and Ellen Domnick, Secs; Paula DeSantis, Treas; Nance Weinstein, Camp advisor. The Board of Directors included: Jill Waldbeser, senior; Jane Sollberger, junior; Janet Moley, sophomore; Toby Yerby, freshmen. Advisors were Mrs. Key and Mrs. Stuckey.

CAULDRON STAFF

Juggling headlines and selecting pictures, laying out pages and competing for working space were everyday occurrences in the Cauldron. Team work made possible the success of the 1973 yearbook. Members of the team were Sue Driscoll, Editor-in-chief; Lynn Hedrick and Nancy Swanson, Junior Editors; Marty Fort and Sandy Williams, Sophomore Editors; Shelly Bratland, Copy Editor; and Michael Samp, Head Photographer. Advisor was Mrs. Vieley.

A change in scheduling made possible the combination of the editorial and business staffs to one hour.

The business staff was responsible for recruiting ads for the book and selling Cauldrons to students. Business staff included Kim Yordy, business manager; Linda Clark, and Rita Andrews. Advisor was Mrs. Kelley.

Business Staff: K. Yordy, L. Clark, R. Andrews.

Cauldron Editorial Staff: M. Fort, S. Williams, Soph. Editors; S. Bratland, Copy writer; L. Hedrick, N. Swanson, Jun. Editors; S. Driscoll, Editor in Chief; Mrs. Vieley, Advisor.

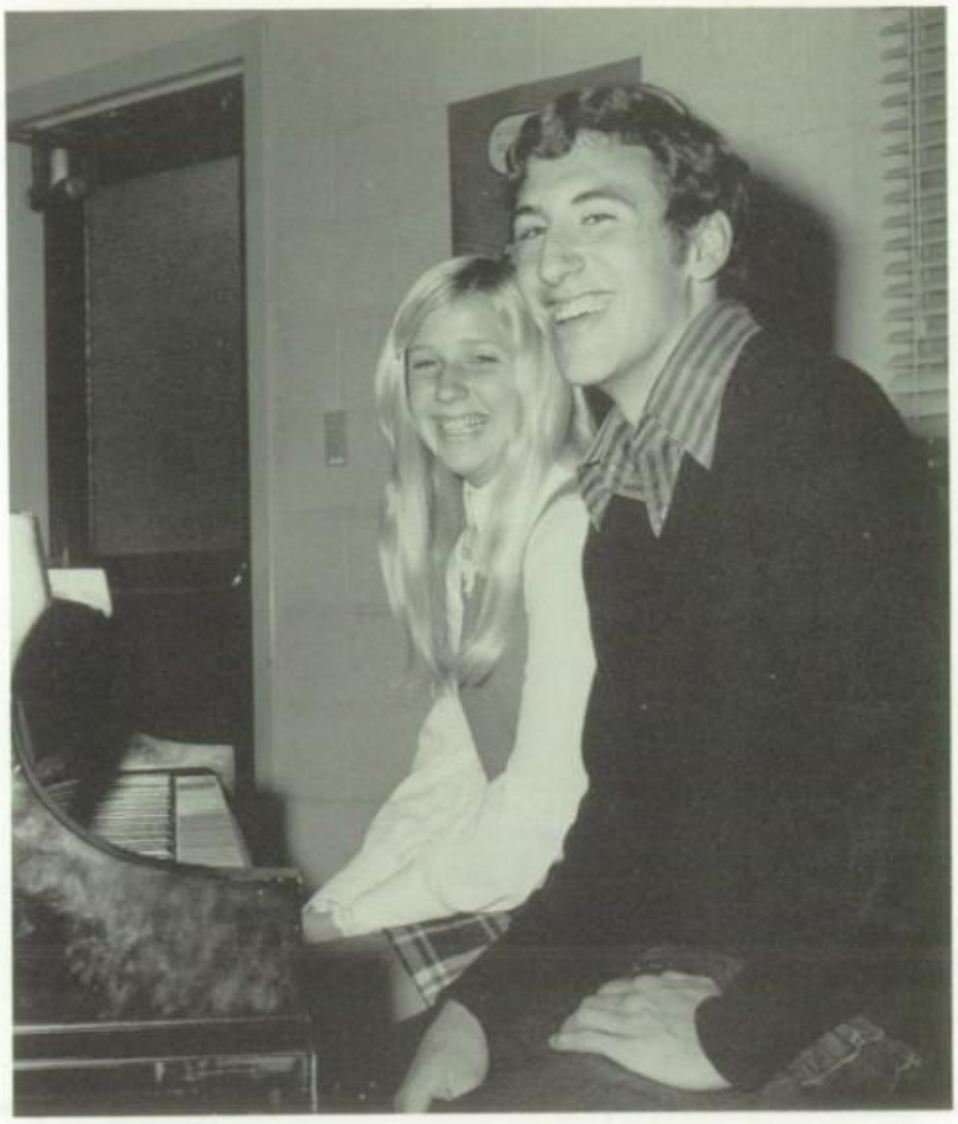
Cauldron Photographers Flash Their Smiles.

All members of chorus were separated into the different choirs depending on their talent, experience and knowledge of choral music. Inexperienced girls were placed in the beginning choir. Girls with training and experience were members of the selected girls choir. All boys and the most qualified girls composed the concert choir. All choir members learned about different types of music and how to sing them as well as the fundamentals of vocalizing, sight-singing and dynamics. A new innovation this year was that all choir members received ½ credit toward graduation for their participation in chorus. Mrs. Mote directed all choirs.



Accompanists: Sue Reinken, Mike Rocke.

THEY MARCH IN TIME

The Band Department is divided into four major sections: Marching Band, Concert Band, Symphonic Band, and Stage Band. The Marching Band plays at all home football games and parades. The Symphonic and Concert Bands hold concerts and go to contest in the Spring. Symphonic Band is composed of the top high school musicians and plays some of the more difficult music. The Stage Band consists of a small group of musicians who have an interest in playing jazz and rock. All sections are under direction of Mr. Kiesler.

FHA

Future Homemakers of America provides knowledge in the field of Home Living to supplement what the girls have learned in a Home Ec. course. FHA activities included parties given for children's homes and staging plays for children in hospitals. The main money-making project was bake sales. The officers of FHA attended sectional meetings and a convention in Springfield to obtain new ideas for their group. Mrs. Gerig was faculty sponsor for FHA this year.

TRI-M

Tri-M, short for Modern Music Masters, was an honorary club for students with superior music ability. Tri-M had a successful year filled with concerts and selected musical compositions. Advisors were Mrs. Mote and Mr. Kiesler.

PHILOSOPHER: NEWS ON TIME

This year Philosopher was produced in conjunction with the Tazewell County News. The Philosopher would appear as a special section once a month in the TCN. Another new feature this year was "Potter Pride", also produced by the Philosopher staff. This special feature appeared every Monday, and offered congratulations to an outstanding student at MHS Jill Gesse and Phill Storck were co-editors for the Philosopher this year.

FORENSICS

Members of Forensics worked diligently but did not win any trophies this year. The six events they entered were prose, Cindy Hofbauer and Sue Taylor; poetry, Patty Walker and Terry Patterson; dramatic interpretation, Chris VonHaugwitz; humorous interpretation, Lisa Koehler; original oratory, Barb Landes; radio speaking, Rick Schmidgall. Mrs. Adams and Miss Amdor were the Forensic coaches.

Perfectly poised.

SCHOOL KEEPERS

The hard-working cooks and janitors see to it that every student can be proud of his school. The cooks plan the noon meal to provide the fundamental daily nutritional requirements basic to every student's needs. The janitors strive to give our school a bright and shiny appearance. MHS is very lucky to have these men and women.

The secretaries run MHS much like a large business organization. They manage the money, plan daily schedules of announced events, and generally take care of the all-important office work. These ladies keep the MHS corporation running smoothly and precisely.

Library Secretaries; Marilyn Meiner, Judy Jones.

Janitors; Charles Wilson, Roland Keller, John Strickfaden, Orrie Zehr, Clyde Brown

Cooks: Edie Stubblefield, Evelyn Hamilton, Jean Wollenschlager, Midge Gleason, Evelyn Adair, not present Lelah Gramm.

Office Secretaries: Florence Kennel, Pat Landes, Carolyn Hubbard

Counseling Secretary: Shirley Anderson

SENIORS

The Class of '73 put forth a strong front with all male leadership. Officers this year were Doug Tetrault, President; Greg Davis, Vice-President; and John Swanstrom, Sec-Treas. The seniors sponsored Homecoming dance with the theme "Love Is". The Class of '73 proved too much for the underclassmen and was victorious in the first annual Junior Olympics. Advisors were Mr. Kimmey and Mr. Hager.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year the class of '74 really did have more—more spirit, more responsibilities and more power as upperclassmen. As past junior classes have done, the class of '74 raised money for prom by maintaining the candy stand at home games and lunch hours. Officers were Matt Schaefer, President; Linda McDonald, Vice President; Kim Yordy, Secretary-Treasurer. Advisors were Mr. Weachter and Mr. Tucker.

It was the duty of the Class of '75 to sponsor a successful Christmas Dance—and successful it was. Lead by the "Women's Lib" Council consisting of Sue Taylor, President; Cathy Rump, Vice-President; and Amy Forsyth, Sec-Treas., the Class of '75 had a very good year. Advisors were Mr. Meows and Mr. Volle.

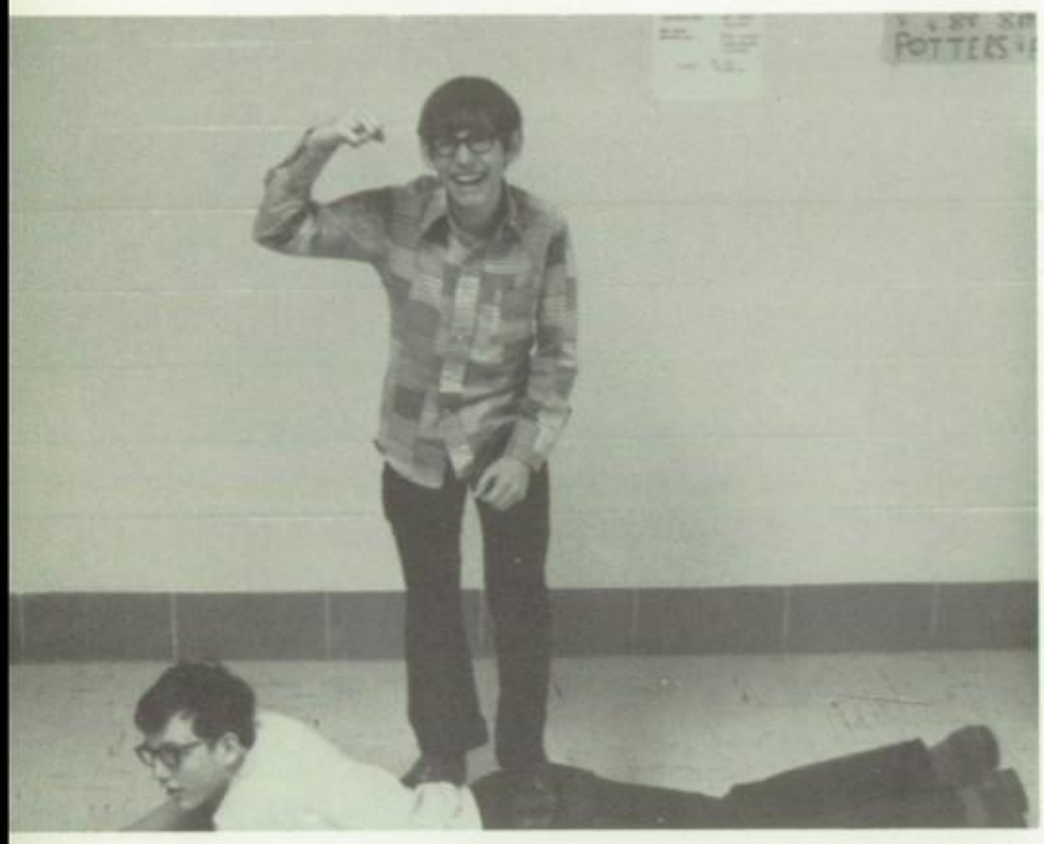
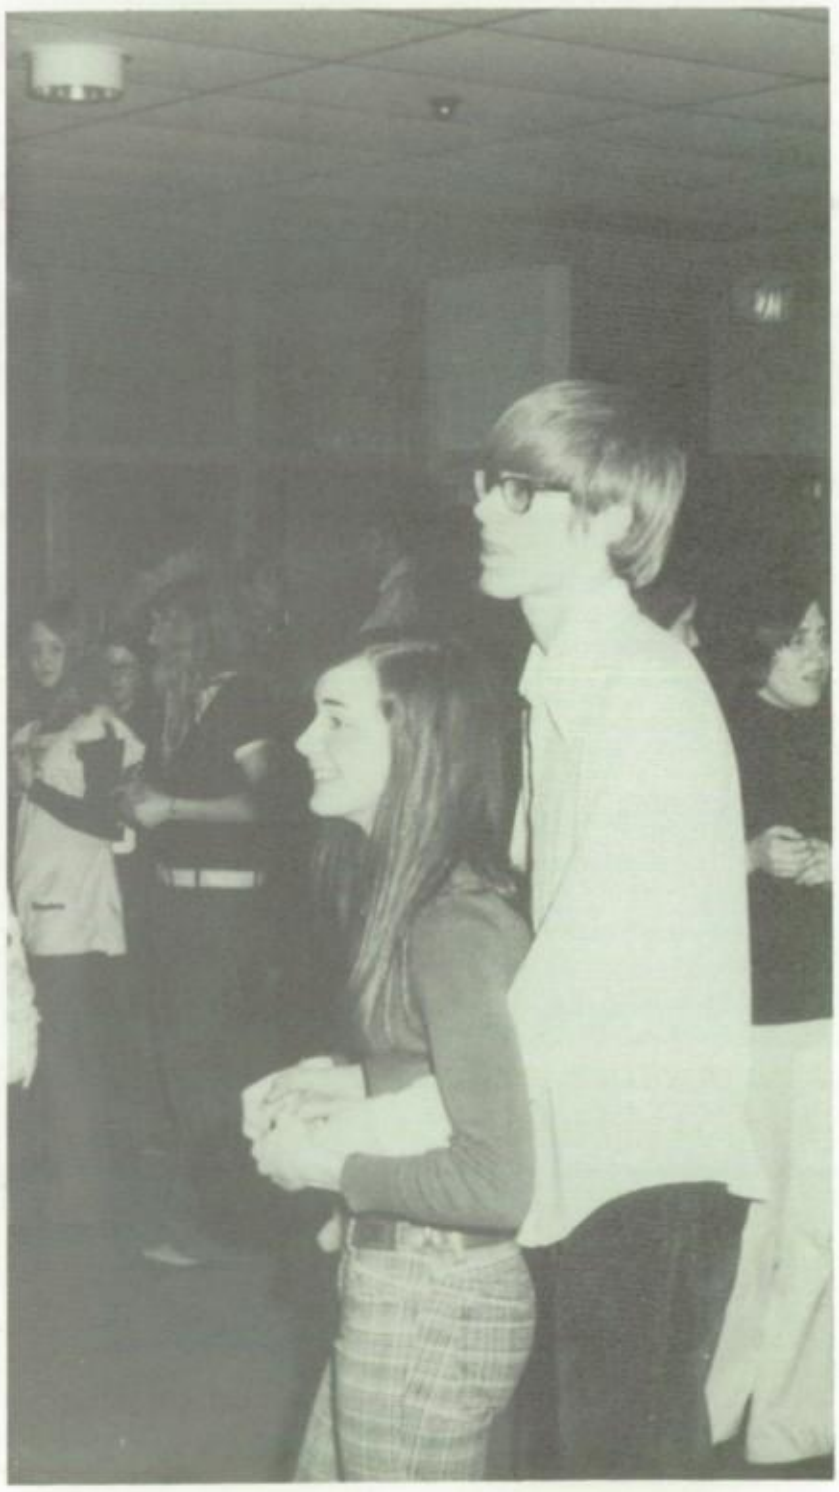
I could drop dead and nobody'd care!

The four stooges.



Who said you can't beat up Carper?

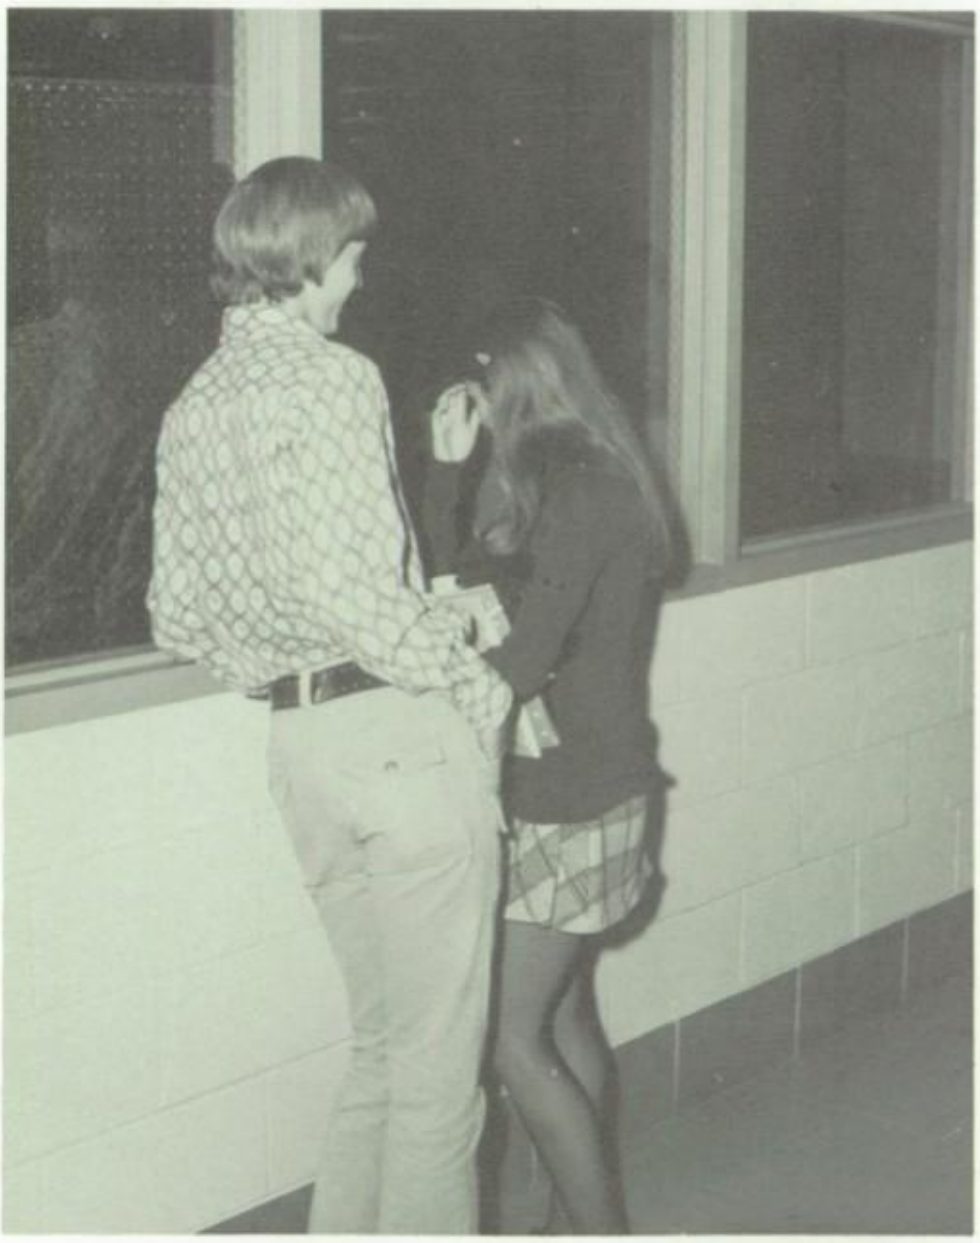
It's a rip-off!



She forgot her suspenders.

Oh, I can't look!

Peek a boo!



Come on, Lynn! Don't cry.

Now where is that battery?

The birdie's stuck?

The class of '76 began their first year at MHS with the enthusiasm common to all first-year students. With their leader, Mike Fuller, and his associates, Judy Perdue, and Toby Yerby, the fearless class of '76 made their challenging debut in the halls of MHS. Advisors were Mr. McKechan and Mrs. Cavallo.

U.S. ARMY

We don't make promises. We make guarantees. All of our options are written in a legal document. Among our guaranteed jobs are 16 month tours with specific units or at specific stations and guaranteed jobs (over 300 offered). Also, the Army allows you to enlist in the Delayed Entry Program and actually leave for active duty as much as 180 days later. Today's Modern Volunteer Army has many advantages which warrant your investigation.

DO YOU SEE WHAT WE SEE?

Things
are moving fast.
Almost every day we learn more about ourselves . . .
our environment . . . our needs. We can see that tomorrow is going to be vastly different from today . . . much more than today is different from yesterday.

It's more important now than ever before to prepare ourselves for the changing times that are coming. You're finding that out as a student. We're finding it out as a company. So we're studying new discoveries and new methods. We're busy with plans to meet the increased energy needs of next year . . . and the year after . . . and the year after.

For you and for us . . . how well we both do depends not so much on what the future brings to us . . . but what we bring to the future.
